DESCRIPTION

Route for cyclists who want to enjoy a demanding route and discover our inlands. The first 25 km the route pass by continuous steep slopes where ascension rarely gives us a break. We will cross several towns where we can enjoy a coffee or fill water. Dos Aguas mountain pass is a balcony to the whole Valencian orchards. The roads are in perfect condition and the descent direction to the town of Dos Aguas is a real adrenaline rush if you love speed.

CULTURAL AND TOURIST PLACES

Bunyol. It is a mountainous area close to the coast and it is famous for being one of Spain's most unusual fiestas, its famous "Tomatina". This amusing fiesta involves everyone hurling tomatoes at each other and has the International Tourist Interest designation.

Dos Aguas. It is located in the central-western area of the province of Valencia, on the River Jucar. It is a municipality rich in mountain scenery and cave paintings. It is the ideal place for mountaineers, speleologists and of course bikers enjoying their marvellous roads.
